

The Leader's Edge Series: Preparing for Performance

Complimentary Virtual Workshop

January 18, 2022 @ 9:00 am - 10:00 am (cst)

Leaders must continue to grow, anticipate, and take action. Much of a leader's focus is on achieving goals and meeting or exceeding the organization's metrics.

In this session of The Leader's Edge, Preparing for Performance, we will discuss a simple formula for achieving the performance you need from your team. We will identify the causes of performance issues and the red flags that you should be aware of. You will leave with the tools you need to achieve strong performance.

Start 2022 by preparing to achieve the highest performance with your team. Join us for an interactive session that will help move you forward with a performance focus.

Guest Speaker

Register Here

Guest Speaker - Linda Farley, Senior Consultant Greene and Associates, Inc.

Linda M. Farley is an accomplished instructional designer, learning facilitator and performance improvement coach. She has extensive experience in developing and facilitating courses for processes and technical training as well as soft skills for a variety of industries. She was chosen by the U.S. Air Force Personnel Centers, the U.S. Forest Service, and the City of San Antonio to train their training staff. Previously she ran a $16M retail business for AT&T and held positions of Staff Human Resources Manager and National Training Manager.

As Senior Consultant with Greene and Associates she, has led the way in creating innovative virtual workshops and a variety of other personnel development initiatives.

THIS MONTH'S PROGRAM HONORS:

To Donate:
Click Here!

Greene and Associates, Inc.
A Career Partners International Firm
CONNECT. INSPIRE.